IV. Reports

REPORTS TO REVIEW	Staffing / Master Schedule / PD's and PLC's / Renovations / Discipline
DISCUSSION	Staffing – Certified is fully staffed, Classified has 4 positions open (Counselor, Registrar, CSP and a Bilingual TA) Master Schedule – classes are balanced. PD and PLC's – this year they are all designed around UDL Renovations – parking lot should be done by fall break,

	new fencing has been finalized, new portable has been delivered but Gunnels is waiting to hear back on a couple of things pertaining to it. New flooring will be installed for the cafeteria, library, and fine arts buildings. Funds for new cameras and lighting has been approved. Discipline – With the new backpack and Cell phone policies in place Pistor has noticed a significant change in the discipline on campus. Fights are down, online bullying is down. Mrs. Daniel mentioned that when she had to have a discussion with one student, he was able to pull out his cell phone to show her the violation and the level of that violation. Pistor students are understanding the Code of Conduct a lot better. 21st CCLC has started up and is doing well with student enrollment. GATE has potentially new funds coming in they would like to use for field trips and campus activities. Benchmarks – No new data for the year.

V. Action Items

ITEM TITLE	Review By-Laws
DISCUSSION NOTES	By-Laws were read out loud as well as individuals were able to go through it. Gerald Acevedo asked if there were any questions or comments on them.
RESOLUTION
Pistor By-Laws were voted to be kept for the 2023 school year.

ITEM TITLE	Site Council Members
DISCUSSION NOTES	We were short 2 teachers and a secretary
RESOLUTION
Will discuss further at next council meeting.

ITEM TITLE	Site Council Funding Backpacks for students
DISCUSSION NOTES	Mrs. Gunnels showed evidence to support the claim of clear and mesh backpacks have assisted greatly with the discipline problems Pistor has faced in the past. Sammantha Lawler mentioned that she prefers mesh backpacks because her friends with the plastic backpacks are having to replace them due to them ripping. Azzaiyah Julio Julio mentioned she prefers the plastic backpacks due to them protecting laptops and other items in them better from rain.

RESOLUTION
Council voted to use Undesignated funds in the amount of $1500 for clear and mesh backpacks to be purchased and distributed to students who need them.
